

Count the Cost / Tasteless Salt

Luke 14:25-35

Okay then, here we go!

Another great lesson ahead ---- we finish another chapter --- as usual we will tie them all together if possible.

Luke 14:1-35

1. What is the overall arc of the message?

Jesus starts out saying this is a parable, meaning He was going to teach and those with a Spiritual mind would understand.

I Corinthians 2:6-16 - Spiritual Wisdom

Luke 14:1-6

The beginning

and

Luke 14:34-45

The Ending of the Story

Do you see it?

Okay, so the instruction then:

The Problem - Pride

The excuses -

The reason we make excuses -

Because the price is too high.

The conclusion:

Luke 14:7-13

Jesus says you've been invited into the Kingdom. You are a member of God's household.

Don't become better than, rather humble yourself and remember where you came from and help those who have need.

Luke 14:15-23

Don't shirk from the responsibility --- God has called you to service.

"He who puts his hand to the plow."

TODAY'S LESSON:

Luke 14:25-35

2. What is this about?

Luke 14:27-35

3. What does it mean, "bear your cross"?

Jesus bore our cross. He paid the price..... So how do you bear it as well?

4. What is the cost to you personally?

We all have neglected our payments in some way.

5. What have you been unwilling to pay?

Chapter 15 next: Prodigal Son -- two lessons.
