

Trusting God Through The Bathroom Tears

Isaiah 12:2: “Surely God is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid. The Lord, the Lord himself, is my strength and my defense; he has become my salvation.”

From Anxiety to Trust (Part a)

1. Anxiety tells us, “Everything depends on you.”
2. Trust is not always a _____; sometimes it is a _____.
3. Transformation requires trust and _____.
4. Trust does not mean fear always disappears before we _____.
5. Fear does not get to write the _____.

What God Taught Me at William Jessup (Part b)

1. God has already given me the gift of _____.
2. I didn’t have to become someone _____ to fulfill God’s assignment.
3. I still had to apply, prepare, enter the classroom, and take the next _____ step.
4. God’s provision did not make the season comfortable, but His _____ carried us through it.

Three Declarations from Isaiah 12:2

God is my Salvation. I will trust and not be afraid. The Lord is my Strength and my defense.

Personal Application (Weekly Challenge: Discuss with a Friend)

What fear or anxiety am I carrying today:

What is the next faithful step God may be asking me to take:

Where have I already seen God’s faithfulness in my life?